

Patty Lollo/THE WALTON REPORTER

Medical Networking...

On Tuesday, Delaware Valley Hospital hosted a visit from Dr. Talaygul Sabyrbekova, a physician from the Republic of Kyrgyzstan, who is studying hospital practices in rural America as part of a healthcare development project for Central Asia. Pictured in the conference room at DVH are, from left to right, Marybeth Clark, LPN, DVH health care manager, David Polge, DVH president and CEO, Dr. Sabyrbekova, Matt Krzyston, executive director of resource and policy exchange, Delhi, Dr. Gary Preiser, DVH, Maja Krzyston, RN, DVH, Dr. Tanya Solbak, a surgeon from Belarus and medical director for CitiHope, Tamara Moore, CitiHope Central Asia regional director, Jean Guarnieri, RN, vice president of patient services at DVH, Vicki Conklin, RN, director of nursing at DVH and Linda Brown, RN, in-service coordinator at DVH.